

~~TOP SECRET~~

TAB A

Approved For Release 2002/09/04 : CIA-RDP81B00879R001000120153-3

OX-6026-63

ITEMS TO BE PROTECTED

The following items are those which should continue to be protected under Project OXCART security procedures subsequent to the surfacing.

- a. The advanced state of the art of the Anti-Radar aspects of the aircraft and related ultra-sensitive concepts and techniques VITAL TO PROTECT! 25X1
- b. Actual stage of development of the aircraft (i.e., vehicle has been flying for some time) and related aircraft systems.
- c. Number of A-12 aircraft involved and delivery schedule.
- d. Operational concepts of CIA in its planned utilization of the A-12.
- e. Techniques employed in "Black" contracting.
- g. Techniques employed in the security program - Industrial, government and operational.
- h. Any information pertaining to the selection, association, processing, training of the Operational Pilots.
- i. Logistics supply NETWORK.
- j. All CIA personnel associated with the project.

Approved For Release 2002/09/04 : CIA-RDP81B00879R001000120153-3

~~TOP SECRET~~

~~TOP SECRET~~

k. To the extent possible identification of industrial suppliers associated with the program if their identification is not essential to the release.

l. Radar suppression procedures as established for NORAD and FAA personnel.

m.

25X6

~~TOP SECRET~~